"Pussyfoot" Johnson Says There Will be no Further Discrimination, as Charged, and That

EVERY SALOON WILL CLOSE

That is Being Operated in the Territory Affected by the Indian Treaty of 1855

T. E. Brents is in the field with about a dozen men and two score men are to be placed at his disposal should they be needed.

Towns slated for immediate action are Bemidji, where thirty-one saloons operate; Detroit, where six have been closed and six more await a similar fate; Walker, two to be closed; Brainerd, twenty-four to be closed; Perham, fifteen to be closed; Grand Rapids, seven to be closed, and Kelliher, six to be closed.

The three saloons in Cass Lake were closed Wednesday and shipments of liquor have been seized in Detroit.

The saloons at Detroit were closed yesterday under direction of Special Agent Brents and deputies James M. Quinn, Way and Johnson. No liquor was destroyed, the saloon keepers being ordered to box and ship all of their liquor out of the restricted territory.

There can be no misunderstanding the statement made by W. E. Johnson, who gained the name of "Pussyfoot" in the south where he was engaged in enforcing the liquor laws. Mr. Johnson in an interview at St. Paul said that if there was discrimination it meant those who abided by the law would be allowed to sell what remained of their stock, but now every saloon in the territory affected would have to close up.

"These Indian whisky dealers have been tramping on the grapes of wrath for over fifty years, and now they're kicking on the vintage."

This is the characteristic way in which W. E. ("Pussyfoot") Johnson special Indian agent, who has been causing so much trouble among the violators of the treaty of 1855 in Northern Minnesota, explains the situation of the saloon men he has been putting out of business and others he is about to put out of business in Northern Minnesota towns located in and near Indian reservations.

Mr. Johnson is resting over Thanksgiving in Minneapolis, having arrived yesterday morning from Des Moines, where he was in court. He may stay in the Mill City today. As before, he is not telling where he is going or how soon he is going.

Questions have arisen over the authority of Mr. Johnson. When asked about this he explains that about six weeks ago he had conference with R. A. Ballinger, secretary of the interior. The result was satisfaction to both sides, he says, and little doubt remains that Johnson is given more authority than ever, since he has announced that all the saloons in Cass Lake, Bemidji and other northern points, and possibly Hibbing and other range towns, must go. In fact the remaining three saloons at Cass Lake were all closed yesterday. Some liquor was spilled there and the rest of it is on its way to St. Paul.

"I admit," he declared to the Pioneer Press last night, "that I was quiet when I was here the last time. This quietude had nothing to do with the Washington office. Mr. Ballinger is pleased with the work, despite all reports to the contrary. He says the laws must be enforced, and that's what we are doing."

"But to get back to the reason quietude prevailed. It was this: Election campaigns were growing warmer every day. The whole thing is that I did not want to manufacture any pressure that might be brought to bear upon any man with political aspirations."

"In a few days I will begin looking up the lines named in the treaties regarding Hibbing, Chisholm, Nashauk, Bovey and the rest on that end of the range. If I find that they are within the lines, as I believe they are, it is my duty to enforce the law without discrimination. Every saloon, no matter where, in the territory prescribed in the treaty of 1855, must close. I have repeated that time and again, and yet I am continually questioned about it. There may be some 'bootleggers' but if caught they will be punished. There is no liquor being shipped into the country now in question. That I am sure. We have men stationed at all points, and the railroads, express companies and all other common carriers are aware of the strength of the law.

"I want to repeat, and you can't make it too strong, that there will be no discrimination. That time is passed. F. W. Zollman of St. Paul, the brewers' attorney charged me with discrimination. If there was any discrimination he well knew what it meant. It meant that those who abided by the law would be able to sell what remained of their stock. As it is now, every saloon will have to close up. My men have their orders, and I believe past events show that orders are carried out to the letter."

"As to Minneapolis: As long as saloons of Minneapolis and other cities and towns that come under the treaty of 1851, and not 1855, behave themselves they will not be molested. But then we are not working under the treaty of 1851 at present."

CHASE-LEWIS NUPTIALS

The Walker Pilot contains the following account of a wedding which occurred in that city and which will be of interest to our readers on account of the acquaintances the bride has in this city:

The marriage of Miss Edna Chase, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Chase and Napoleon Lewis, of Canton, S. D., took place last evening in the parlors of the Hotel Chase. Rev. Parshall read the service at 8 o'clock in the presence of relatives and intimate friends.

A bower and altar of ferns and southern smilax formed the setting for the service. Pink and white roses were used throughout the rooms. Miss Davis sang "Oh Promise Me," and Miss Isabel Chase, sister of the bride, played "Lohengrin" march as the bridal party entered.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. Her gown was of chiffon cloth over cream satin and she carried bride's roses. The wedding was followed by a reception and wedding supper. Mr. and Mrs. Lewis left on the night train for an eastern trip and will be at home after January 1st at Alceston, S. D. Out of town guests were: Dr. and Mrs. Lewis, Misses Bernice Armstrong, Emma Van Damarus, the Messrs. Cant, Jacques, Kasper from Minneapolis, and Miss Carrie Morrison and Dr. Camp of Brainerd.

Mr. Lewis is a successful and highly respected business man of his home town. The bride has made Walker her home for years and is one of many personal charms and accomplishments. The congratulations and best wishes of the people of Walker follow them to their new home.

The Dinner Table of Old France.
Could we restore for half an hour the dinner table of old France and obtain half a dozen instantaneous photographs of a royal banquet at any era between the reign of Francis I. and Louis XIV. such laughter would be heard as might disturb the serenity of Louis in paradise. The duchess, her napkin tied securely around her neck, would be seen nibbling a bone, the noble marquis surreptitiously scratching himself, the belle marquise withdrawing her spoon from her lips to help a neighbor to savor with it, another fair creature scouring her plate with her bread, a gallant courtier using his doublet or the tablecloth as a towel for his fingers and two footmen holding a yard of damask under a lady's chin while she emptied her goblet at a draft. All of these at one era or another were the usages of polite society. During a feast of inordinate length it was sometimes necessary to substitute a clean cloth for the one which the carelessness or bad manners of the guests had reduced to a deplorable condition.—New Orleans Times-Democrat.

MRS. SUNDERLAND IS GUILTY

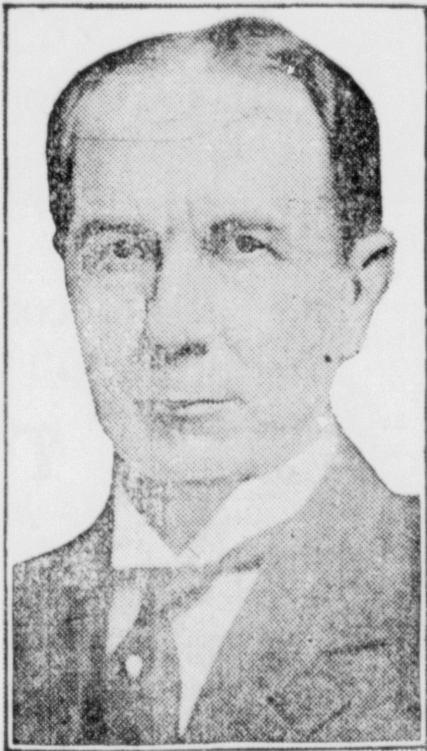

Wisconsin Woman Convicted of Husband's Murder.

Chippewa Falls, Wis., Nov. 26.—Mrs. Annie Sunderland, charged with shooting and killing her husband, Aylesworth Sunderland, in this city on the night of May 14, 1910, was found guilty after the jury had been out four and one-half hours. The woman throughout the trial displayed no emotion. A jury composed of farmers and business men was quickly secured. About fifteen witnesses testified for the state as to the tragedy and its details. While it showed that the prisoner had threatened the life of her husband at times, yet its case was not strong as to a premeditated crime.

Mrs. Sunderland told of a sensational scene that occurred the night of the murder. The man and wife had not lived in the same room for three years, but that night the husband came up stairs and assaulted her, throwing her out of bed, beating her and threatening to kill her. At the height of the fracas she said she took the gun from her bed and shot him. Then she summoned medical aid and made her flight from the city to the woods, being captured two days after.

ROBERT S. LOVETT.

Gives Reason for Incorporation of a New Company.

LOVETT EXPLAINS PURPOSE

Tells Reason for Incorporating New Company.

New York, Nov. 26.—Judge R. S. Lovett, president of the Union Pacific railroad, gave out a statement explaining the purpose of the incorporation in Oregon on Wednesday of the Oregon-Washington Railroad and Navigation company. The new company is capitalized at $50,000,000, and is controlled by the Union Pacific. Judge Lovett's statement says:

"The Oregon Railroad and Navigation company mortgage, which limited the bonds issuable under it to $24,000,000, made no adequate provision for new lines. Consequently branches and other extensions have been constructed from time to time by separate corporations so that the system in Oregon and Washington, while operated as a unit, is really owned by several different companies whose stock is held by the Union Pacific."

"The purpose now is to vest the title to these several pieces of road in a single corporation, and provide for further construction and expansion to keep pace with the rapid development of the Northwest by an issue of bonds under a mortgage that will cover an entire and compact system."

"We are taking similar action and for the same reason with respect to the Oregon Short line system in Utah, Idaho and Montana."

DURMONT ARGUES FOR THE STATE

Scores Finding of Master in Minnesota Rate Cases.

St. Paul, Nov. 26.—In an argument which reflected careful thought and preparation, Edmund S. Durmont, attorney for the state, occupied both sessions of the federal court in summing up and discussing the several points in issue in the Minnesota rate cases. His argument was not an oratorical effort, but rather a clear and direct presentation of the law and facts upon which the state will rest its case. With the exception of conflict between state and federal laws, which will be reached later, Mr. Durmont dwelt at some length upon every salient point in the case. His argument held the close attention of Judge Sanborn and the opposing counsel.

On the questions of valuation of railroad properties, division of cost and reasonableness of return, Mr. Durmont took exception in every particular to the findings of Judge C. T. Otis, special master in chancery. He urged that the confiscatory nature of the Minnesota rates, according to these findings, are made to rely solely upon the opinion of the master as to valuation, and that powers which are purely legislative are by this action, as it now stands, put up to the discretion of the judiciary.

He said the master has given the railroad properties the highest possible valuation and that, as figured out by him, any rate which might be named by the state could be declared confiscatory.

It is not expected that the cases will reach the United States supreme court before next May.

Importers Arrested.

New York, Nov. 26.—Three more woolen importers were arrested charged with customs frauds against the federal government. They are Herman Markowitz, Charles Stern and Edward I. Cohen of the firm of H. Markowitz & Co., dealers in cloaks and suits, and the specific charge is that on Dec. 16, 1909, they made a fraudulent entry at the customs house on a consignment of woolen goods.

New Bishop of Leavenworth.

Kansas City, Nov. 26.—Rev. Father John Ward, former pastor of the Catholic cathedral at Leavenworth, Kan., has been named by Pope Pius as bishop of Leavenworth.

Gayville Elevator Burned.

Yankton, S. D., Nov. 26.—The Farmers' Union elevator at Gayville burned to the ground. The origin of the fire is not known.

TROUBLE SEEMS TO HAVE ENDED

No Further Fighting Reported
From Mexico.

REPORT PROVES TO BE FALSE

Story That Battle Had Occurred Near Eagle Pass and That Francisco I. Madero Had Been Wounded Found to Be Untrue—No Developments in Situation on the American Side of the Border.

Laredo, Tex., Nov. 26.—There have been no further developments in the revolutionary situation in Mexico. General Lauro Villar, commanding the forces along the Mexican border, has received advices covering every point from Matamoros to Ciudad Porfirio Diaz.

On the American side, where detachments of soldiers are on duty from Brownsville to Eagle Pass, there are no developments.

General Villar ran down the report that a battle had occurred in the neighborhood of Eagle Pass and that Francisco I. Madero had been wounded. The Mexican officers communicated with Colonel Pena at Ciudad Porfirio Diaz, and Colonel Pena declared the story unfounded. He also said no trace of Madero had been found.

REPORT SITUATION QUIET

Number of Letters Received in El Paso From Mexico.

El Paso, Tex., Nov. 26.—Dr. R. D. Robinson of El Paso, who has interests across the border, received a number of letters from Mexico, all of them reporting the situation quiet at Parral and Torreon.

One of the letters states that when the disturbances started a bridge was burned at Loma and one train was delayed. Other Torreon trains, the letter says, are arriving on time.

"I went to Loma the next morning," said the writer, "to see where the bridge was burned. It was about 120 feet long. Engineer Boyles of an approaching freight train saw the flames in time to avoid a wreck."

Another letter adds confirmation of recent statements that stories of fighting at Torreon were untrue. All the letters received by Dr. Robinson agreed on this point. Another Torreon letter says:

"My numerous Mexican friends assure me that no foreigners will suffer from other than business loss. Things of course are in an uproar politically and a meeting of the business men was held. The city was without the proper police protection and there was not sufficient money in the treasury to add the desired force. We contributed to make up the deficit and have enough police to feel safe."

"We have some 1,400 troops well organized that are doing grand work. The outcome is hard to predict. Frankly I fear that it will last until the death of some of our present rulers and the re-establishment of the new people. While not active all the time it will keep the country unsettled."

Messages were handled over Mexican lines during the day, but there was no confirmation of the reported wounding of Madero as sent from Eagle Pass.

INSURGENTS DRIVEN BACK

Repulsed by Mexican Troops at Reynosa.

Brownsville, Tex., Nov. 26.—The first hostilities on this part of the border were reported from Reynosa, sixty miles above Matamoros, where 100 mounted insurgents, while trying to cross the river from this side, were fired upon and driven back by the Mexican troops.

Reinforcements were sent out from Matamoros, but the band had disappeared.

MANY UNDER INDICTMENT

Indians Held for Trail for Murder of John Caldwell.

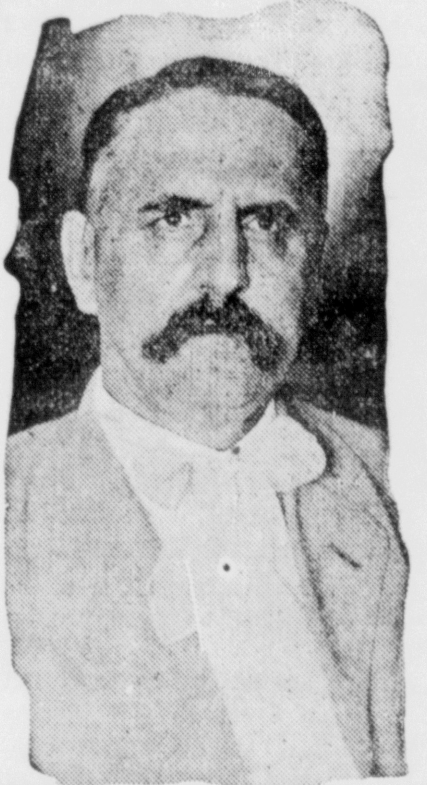

Grand Rapids, Minn., Nov. 26.—The grand jury has reported indictments against Ed Johnson, for running an alleged gambling house at Snowball; Ed Johnson and Gust Johnson for selling liquor without a license, and against Frank Capoletti on a charge of receiving stolen property. Capoletti is alleged to have bought brass steam fittings and other fixtures from two men who are charged with stealing the same from the Oliver Iron Mining company locomotives. Indictments were also found against the two men. Their names are Wona and Jakosa.

Mat Mariele was indicted for assault in the first degree. Mariele is charged with shooting Frank Peruttsch at Nashauk, March 8. Joseph Ranele was indicted for murder in the first degree. Ranele is alleged to have shot John Anderson at Keewatin Nov. 13. Other indictments were against James Gogglee, for murder in the first degree. He is charged with being responsible for the death of John Caldwell, who was found stabbed to death Oct. 17. Bowstring Jo, Susan Bowstring and Wass Bowstring are also charged with the murder of Caldwell.

Charles E. Good was indicted for the alleged misappropriation of public funds. Good was formerly treasurer of the village of Keewatin, and it is charged that on April 5 he misappropriated $490 of liquor license money paid by Jack Kuro.

JAMES A. TAWNEY.

Panama Paper Opposes His Ideas Regarding the Canal.

REMARKS BY TAWNEY
CRITICISED BY PRESS

Panama Paper Does Not Approve of Them.

Panama, Nov. 26.—The remarks of Representative James Tawney, chairman of the appropriations committee of the American house of representatives, on the subject of the defense of the Panama canal, which were printed in the Star-Herald, created a stir in the canal zone. The Star-Herald, commenting editorially on the utterances of Mr. Tawney, says:

"The question is one for the great American people to decide through their representatives in congress and they should decide it in accordance with their interest. It would be an act of unusual courtesy to defer the decision pending a hearing of the opinion of the nations in a matter in which the American taxpayer alone foots the bill. We have no doubt that the verdict given in such case would be for neutrality, but it is open to speculation whether in the event of a war in the Pacific involving the United States its opponents would respect the neutrality of a canal belonging exclusively to that nation and whether it is wise to leave such a costly piece of property uninsured against war risks in the face of a foe whose respect for neutrality is problematic."

CANNON IS AT WASHINGTON

Looks for Little General Legislation at Coming Session.

Washington, Nov. 26.—Philosophic and smiling, Speaker Joseph G. Cannon returned to Washington. While mildly deploring the result of the recent election, in which, he said, "a majority has made a mistake in giving our friends, the Democrats, control of the Sixty-second congress," he added: "With that responsibility it remains to be seen what they will do. I shall be glad if they find themselves able to redeem their promises in the campaign—reduce the cost of living and increase the price of labor."

Speaker Cannon does not expect the passage of much legislation in the forthcoming session, due to the scant time congress has in which to act. He expects the appropriations for the coming fiscal year will be in the neighborhood of $1,000,000,000.

DRAYTON BRIDGE REFUSED

Commissioners Decline to Authorize Appropriation.

Drayton, N. D., Nov. 26.—There will be no bridge constructed across the Red river at this point, because the board of commissioners refused to make an appropriation of $25,000 that had been asked for. The board takes the position that to appropriate an election must be held.

In proposing the construction of a bridge Drayton business interests sought to obtain direct connection with a large district in Minnesota. This territory could be readily tapped by Drayton if there were proper transportation facilities across the Red river, the ferry service being entirely inadequate.

Drayton may desire to circulate a petition for the purpose of holding an election on the question.

Kipling's Mother Dead.

London, Nov. 26.—Mrs. John Lockwood Kipling, mother of Rudyard Kipling, is dead. She was Miss Alice MacDonald, daughter of the late Rev. George B. MacDonald, a Wesleyan minister. Her sisters married Sir Philip Burne-Jones and Sir E. J. Poynter. She was married in 1865 and her husband is still living at Tisbury, Salisbury.

Ore Shipments Decline.

Two Harbors, Minn., Nov. 26.—Ore shipments from this port continue at a reduced rate. The total shipments for the season will be a little over 8,000,000 tons, or about 900,000 tons less than the shipments in 1909.

TROUBLE SEEMS TO HAVE ENDED

Platform of the Grange
Regulation of Railroads and Revision of Tariff Are Two Planks.

Atlantic City, N. J., Nov. 26.—Resolutions calling for drastic regulation of railroads and giving the interstate commerce commission power to nullify extortionate freight and passenger rates were adopted by the National Grange. Radical changes in the Payne-Aldrich tariff bill and physical valuation of railroad trunk lines also were urged by the farmers.

Federal aid for road improvement, the parcels post, conservation of natural resources, a national income tax direct election of United States senators, agricultural extension, and a non-partisan tariff commission were included in the report of the resolution committee.

The speedy construction of a ship canal connecting the Mississippi river with the Great Lakes and the Atlantic ocean, canal lines and the dredging of all great arteries of commerce, to cheapen marketing of produce, also were declared for in the report. The report reaffirms the action of the grange at Des Moines last year in asking for federal aid to promote the sale of farm products in foreign lands.

A centralized United States bank and ship subsidies were opposed, as was the federal public health bureau.

Two Boys Drowned.

Ladysmith, Wis., Nov. 26.—Walter Osterhout and Johnny Taper, ten and eight years old, were drowned here while skating on thin ice on the Flambeau river. Both bodies were recovered.

TWO HURT BY AN EXPLOSION

Wisconsin Men Badly Injured While Sawing Wood Near Edgar.

Grand Rapids, Wis., Nov. 26.—Word has been received that Frank and Louis Braun, residents of Edgar, were badly injured in a boiler explosion. The young men were operating a wood-sawing machine. While thus engaged a terrific explosion occurred, and the boiler was blown to pieces. Frank Braun was badly scalded about the face and will lose the sight of one of his eyes, possibly both. Louis Braun had one hand torn off and was badly cut on other parts of the body.

Town Threatened by Fire.

Midale, Sask., Nov. 26.—For several hours the total destruction of this town was threatened by fire, but fortunately the wind dropped at the critical moment. The fire started in a grocery and confectionery store, which was burned. The total loss was $30,000, covered by insurance.

Deer Hunter Shot.

Rhineland, Wis., Nov. 26.—William Cleveland of this city was accidentally shot while hunting deer near Eagle River. Paul Ziedler of Lemira, Wis., a companion, fired at a deer and wounded it. The bullet passed through and struck Cleveland in the leg below the knee.

Two Men Badly Hurt.

St. Paul, Nov. 26.—A collision between a baker's cart and a buggy at East Seventh and Ross streets may prove fatal to Louis Johnson, one of the occupants of the buggy. With his companion, Nels Peterson, he is in a critical condition at Luther hospital.

Western Miners Would Join
Federation of Labor.

MACHINIST MAKES OBJECTION

Brings Up a Constitutional Point in Opposition to the Granting of a Charter to the Western Federation of Miners—Declares if Charter Without Restrictions Is Granted His Organization Will Leave the American Federation.

St. Louis, Nov. 26.—The question of whether the Western Federation of Miners shall be granted a charter by the American Federation of Labor was placed before President Gompers on a point raised by President James O'Connell of the machinists.

President O'Connell said the constitution provided that in cases where charters were applied for the written consent of the chief officials of all other organizations involved had to be obtained. He said that he, as president of the machinists, had never given such consent and asked that the point be passed upon.

President Gompers was unprepared to act before adjournment was taken. Whether the controversy will be reopened depends on whether Gompers renders his decision.

O'Connell declared that if the charter without restrictions was granted by the convention his organization would withdraw from the federation.

Charles H. Moyer, head of the Western Federation and a guest of the convention, by invitation, explained that the invitation to become affiliated with the American Federation had been repeated yearly for fifteen years. He said the question of jurisdiction would not be serious.

The report of the committee on the president's report, which was adopted, directs that state federations in Pennsylvania, West Virginia, Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Wisconsin and Alabama introduce bills before the state legislature providing for an investigation of the charges that the United States Steel corporation is importing criminal labor from Europe; that a committee of five be appointed by President Gompers to organize the departments of the federation.

The convention adopted a resolution providing for a memorial to congress urging the exclusion of Asiatic laborers.

SAYS TAFT IS INDIFFERENT

President Criticized at Deep Waterway Convention.

St. Louis, Nov. 26.—Charges that President Taft is growing indifferent toward a deeper waterway for the Mississippi river and contests between factions of states for representation on the committees enlivened the first session of the Lake to the Gulf Deep Waterway association convention, which was held here.

W. K. Kavanaugh, president of the association, was cheered heartily by the delegates during the reading of his opening address when he declared that President Taft has mistaken the sentiment of the nation.

The fight in the Illinois Republican party came to the surface when the delegation went into a caucus to elect a representative on the resolutions committee. United States Senator Lorimer's friends selected Congressman H. T. Rainey for the resolutions committee and Governor Deneen's followers announced they had chosen Isham Randolph.

After an hour's wrangling Isham Randolph was chosen for the resolutions committee and Congressman Rainey for the nominating committee. Isham Randolph of Chicago told the convention the waterway question was not a political one. He declared in favor of fighting for the deepest channel obtainable—if not fourteen feet, then twelve or nine.

Governor Deneen advised the convention not to assume a defiant attitude in advance of the report of the government engineers, who have completed a survey of the Mississippi waterway project.

Without opposition Chicago was chosen the next meeting place of the convention.

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 26, 1910

The appointment of Judge Ira B. Mills as a member of the commerce court is being considered by President Taft.

The old time turkey raffle that so used to entertain the chance loving people, many of whom were wont to spend thrice the price of a fowl for his Thanksgiving table, like many other old time customs, is a thing of the past.

We hope that the citizens of Brainerd will attend the Northern Minnesota Development association lectures in large numbers. Intellectual business men can not afford to stay away, and it certainly would be unbecoming of Brainerd to have less boosters on hand than our visiting neighbors bring with them.

A Detroit telegram says that local land men and those interested in local business affairs in that city are planning to put the liquor question squarely before the Northern Minnesota Development association when it convenes in Brainerd December 1, to determine if some action may be taken to set aside the liquor clause in the Indian treaties. They are not optimistic regarding congressional action along this line, and say none may be hoped for unless there is a far-reaching sentiment against the "lid."

Minnesota bankers are taking up the roll of boosters and have inaugurated a campaign to increase the appropriation for state immigration department. The purpose is to attract desirable immigration to the state, notably in the central and north central parts, where fertile land abounds at reasonable prices. The bankers association will also probe into the features of the tax and school laws which are said to tend to restrict immigration. This is a great year for boosting and development and there is plenty of room for the good work in Minnesota.

Gov. Eberhart has appointed J. A. O. Preus as state insurance commissioner, succeeding J. A. Hartigan, his term to begin Jan. 1st. Mr. Preus is well known through the state as a young man of excellent ability and his friends who are legion in Minnesota will congratulate him upon his advancement. He was for some time with Senator Nelson in Washington, and two years ago he had charge of the speakers' bureau during the campaign in this state and later on became executive clerk to the governor. His work during the campaign just closed was of great benefit. Archie Hayes, of Hastings, succeeds Mr. Preus as clerk, and Ralph Wheelock will retain the place he now holds as private secretary to the governor.

CONSOLIDATION OF RURAL SCHOOLS

By W. M. Hays, of Washington, D. C., Will Attract Listeners of Men and Women

WAS FORMER MINNESOTA MAN

Demonstrates by Charts and Diagrams How Our Log Schools are to be Replaced

Perhaps the one lecture on the programme at the December meeting in Brainerd of the Northern Minnesota Development association which will attract the most interested listeners of men and women, will be the lecture on consolidated rural schools, delivered by W. M. Hays, assistant secretary of agriculture from Washington, D. C.

Mr. Hays is a former student, instructor and practitioner from our own state of Minnesota and has risen to be an assistant to a cabinet officer at Washington. Mr. Hays has for years given the rural school question a thorough and systematic study, and has the ability to present the results of his researches in a simple, attractive, intelligent and forceful manner.

By means of charts and diagram he demonstrates how our log house country schools are to be replaced by one central institution for each township, arranged with suitable accommodations and with symmetry and beauty so that school days will be a pleasure and a treat to our country children, and provide them with a modern education, such as they deserve, at the hands of the most competent instructors. Courses in scientific farming and domestic science will be the features, and the future will then hear less about the "Back to the Farm" cry and the wall of "high cost of living."

Let us hope that our citizens of row Wing county will avail themselves of this opportunity, and men and women should turn out in full numbers. Minnesota, like many other states, will soon have to adopt this method for rural education and is well for all to become acquainted with this system at this time.

CLEANING UP FOR DECEMBER

Iron Exchange Building and Post Office Getting Ready to Make a Good Impression

The contractors and superintendent of the Iron Exchange building are to be commended on the clean up of streets and alleys they have made adjacent to the new building. Clean streets and alleys, more than anything else, impress the visitor to our city and in view of the hundreds of guests which Brainerd will entertain next week the step is well taken.

At the post office Contractor Miller is also getting busy. He has a large crew on and is getting the stone cornice on his building. He has cleaned the sidewalk and the street and tidied up his piles of building material. He also realizes that 969 or more visitors will turn 1,938 curious eyes on his job and its surroundings.

The whole city, by the way, will be inspected by the visitors. It is needless to say that a clean city makes the best appeal to such people.

McCLENAHAN GRANTS A NEW TRIAL

In Itasca Cedar & Tie Co. vs George A. McKinley and Others

1ST VERDICT GRANTED $23,024.97

H. B. Fryberger, of Duluth, Argued Motion for New Trial, Opposed by H. L. Schmitt

Judge W. S. McClenahan has granted the plaintiff's motion for a new trial in the case of the Itasca Cedar and Tie Co. vs George A. McKinley, William G. Hoerr, Edward Austin and the Brainerd Lumber & Mercantile Co.

Attorney H. B. Fryberger, of Duluth successfully argued the motion for a new trial and was opposed by Attorney H. L. Schmitt, of Mankato. The verdict rendered in this case on January 15, 1910, gave the defendant, George A. McKinley, possession of the property involved and assessed his damages at $23,024.97 with interest at 6 per cent from Sept. 25, 1908 to date.

In the memorandum attached to the order granting a new trial Judge McClenahan states:

"I think it was error to receive in evidence the books offered by the defendant McKinley to show the result of the estimate made of the material in the yard at the time this action was commenced. But were this otherwise if the books were properly received in evidence, the methods adopted in making the inspection and estimate in question were not such as to justify the full measure of credit which must have been extended to them by the jury. I feel that substantial justice has not been done by this verdict."

The case will again appear for trial at the December term of court.

15 KILLED IN FACTORY FIRE

Special to the Dispatch:—

Newark, N. J., Nov. 26th.—Fifteen persons are dead in the fire in the factory of the Newark Paper Box company, today. An hour after the fire started eleven bodies had been taken from the building. Nearly all of the victims were young women employees. Scores of the employees were injured. When the fire broke out it trapped fifty young girls employed on one of the upper floors. A panic ensued. Many of the girls leaped from the windows to the streets.

MINNESOTA SOIL SURVEYS

A Subject New to Most of us Will be Discussed at the December Development Meeting

Soil surveys for Minnesota are probably news to most of us. At the December meeting in Brainerd of the Northern Minnesota Development association, this subject will be fully presented from the lecture platform by two eminent men who are making the study of soils their life work. These men are A. R. Whitson, of the University of Wisconsin, and W. H. Frazier, of the University of Minnesota.

In many states soil surveys are carried on season after season. Every county is carefully investigated, frequently in company with geologists, and the character of the soils investigated. Both physical and chemical tests are made. Maps are then compiled to show the character of the soils in the different parts of the county, and the accompanying reports show what each portion of the county will produce best, and how the soil should be used and cared for.

Without using and heeding some scientific principles, no farmer can use a patch of ground for any great length of time without doing it a great injury. You can not get something from nothing when dealing with the soil, and the farmer who robs the soil and does not return something, is as guilty as a burglar. Our farmers would be more contented if they would only observe and practice a few scientific principles. Nature is built up on scientific principles, some of which are complex and some simple. A knowledge and an application of a few of the latter in the daily toils will bring manifold remuneration to the farmer.

Do not fail to attend these lectures for it may be a long time before you will hear this subject discussed again by men so ably qualified. The meetings will be held at the Brainerd opera house and there will be no admission charged.

BENEFIT RURAL POPULATION

Program Specially Arranged to Benefit People From the Country—Ladies are Especially Invited

The programme for the December meeting at Brainerd of the Northern Minnesota Development association has been arranged for the special benefit of the rural population. Our country friends are urged not to miss this opportunity and attend these meetings. The meeting will be held at the Brainerd opera house so as to accommodate every body.

Many of the members on the programme are of vital importance to all classes of people. We hope that the business men about town will ease up on their daily affairs and attend. The entire public is invited.

A special invitation is extended to the ladies. Problems of great importance to women, such as the consolidation of rural schools, will receive an elaborate presentation. Don't be bashful, ladies. The meetings during scheduled lectures are as orderly as the best you have already attended, and the speakers are the most intellectual men in the state on their respective subjects. There is no admission fee.

LARGE DELEGATION FROM THE NORTH

Bemidji and Duluth to Send Special Trains—Twin Cities Not Yet Heard From

GREAT INTEREST DISPLAYED

Boosters From Commercial Centers of Northern Minnesota Showing Keen Interest in Brainerd

According to the latest reports both Bemidji and Duluth will each be represented in Brainerd at the December meeting of the Northern Minnesota Development association by at least one hundred representatives and boosters. Both delegations will come in special trains. In all probabilities other northern delegations will join the Bemidji special and the iron range delegations the Duluth special.

It is gratifying to see so much interest displayed by these sections of the state. They are fortunate in containing many good boosters who are ever on the trail. Bemidji is rapidly expanding into a strong commercial centre. Duluth has always shown a keen interest in Brainerd and its Cuyuna country, and has derived many material benefits from it. We always enjoy the Duluth boosters and welcome their coming visit.

Very recently Moorhead was reported to be seriously considering the sending of a delegation to the convention. We hope our western friends will materialize their plans and grace the meeting with a bunch of organized boosters.

Our enterprising neighbor, Deerwood, has arranged to send forty of its Commercial club and the Deerwood band, and will open a regular camp in Brainerd. They want the people to know that Deerwood is growing rapidly and healthily. Good for Deerwood. We welcome our neighbors.

It seems strange that the Twin Cities have exhibited only such a lukewarm feeling. Those cities draw heavily from the resources of central and northern Minnesota and the latter are deserving of some attention now. The cities seem to be overlooking a golden opportunity and ought to send the strongest delegations they could possibly muster. The trip is a short one, and business men ought to be able to spare two days to further interests. Come on folks, get into the game. Brainerd will treat you right if you will only give us a chance.

MUSIC AND DRAMA

At the Grand

The headliner at the Grand this week is the Roberts Duo, presenting their latest musical success, "The Doll Maker." Mr. Roberts and his charming little daughter present an act which is pleasing to the old and young people. Their comedy work is natural and so makes an instant appeal to the audience, which on every occasion has been most liberal in its applause. Miss Roberts is a most ingenious and naive little dancer.

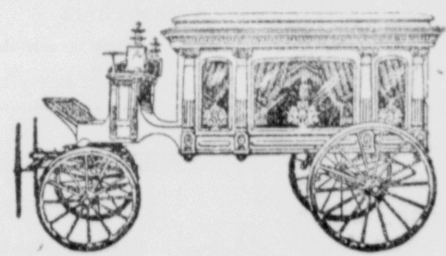

Alfred Mraz is singing the illustrated songs and draws heavy applause. The pictures are of a high order, especially the one entitled, "The Salutory Lesson," so pathetic as to move some of the observers to tears.

Last night was amateur night and little Joseph Lescault sang and the Towers brothers of East Brainerd gave several vocal selections. Hiram Perkins of Baxter, was not present and his place was filled by Bill Simpkins, of Pine River, who proved to be a most capable comedian.

Y. M. C. A. NOTES

There will be a men's meeting at the Y. M. C. A. building at 4 o'clock, Rev. M. S. Lowrie will conduct the meeting. His topic will be: "Man Shall Not Live on Bread Alone." There will be good music. All men are welcome.

The membership committee of the Y. M. C. A. met last night and decided to hold a membership contest in December. Teams will be chosen in regard to weight making, a heavy weight and light-weight teams. Scales will be placed in the lobby and as the members come in they will be weighed and placed on the respective teams. The losing team will have to furnish an entertainment early in January to the winners.

The popular Northwest Mid-Winter Carnival Co. will be here Jan. 19, 20 and 21, under the auspices of the Northern Pacific R. R. Y. M. C. A. of this city. With its great number of attractions it furnishes a clean and unoffending amusement. Even the most critical person will be pleased with the shows which appeal to both young and old. The attractions are all new and original and strive for one great purpose—to satisfy everyone.

There will be four great feature attractions, with massive productions of new and up-to-date vaudeville, containing actors of wonderful ability and talent. Besides these main attractions will be small ones which will form with the big shows an enjoyable and entertaining combination. There will also be refreshment booths and the usual small stands of amusements which follow a large carnival.

It could justly be called a city of mirth and fun with the large crowds of merry makers which are bound to be present at the shows. The noise of the barkers and the swaying of the crowd will make the old feel young and the young feel happy.

The management only offers to you what they think best and in bringing the different shows into this carnival they took the public into consideration and with rare ability chose a combination of shows which every one will enjoy.

Watch for announcements later.

STOMACH PUT IN ORDER

No Indigestion, Gas, Sourness, Heartburn or Dyspepsia Five Minutes After Taking Diapiesin

If what you just ate is souring on your stomach or lies like a lump of lead, refusing to digest, or you belch gas and eructate sour, undigested food, or have a feeling of dizziness, heartburn, fullness, nausea, bad taste in mouth and stomach headache—this is indigestion.

A full case of Pape's Diapiesin costs only 50 cents and will thoroughly cure your out-of-order stomach, and leave sufficient about the house in case some one else in the family may suffer from stomach trouble or indigestion.

Ask your pharmacist to show you the formula plainly printed on these 50-cent cases, then you will understand why Dyspeptic trouble of all kinds must go, and why they usually relieve sour, out-of-order stomach or indigestion in five minutes. Diapiesin is harmless and tastes like candy, though each dose contains power sufficient to digest and prepare for assimilation into the blood all the food you eat; besides, it makes you go to the table with a healthy appetite; but, what will please you most, is that you will feel that your stomach and intestines are clean and fresh, and you will not need to resort to laxatives or liver pills for biliousness or constipation.

This city will have many diapiesin cranks, as some people will call them, but you will be cranky about this splendid stomach preparation, too, if you ever try a little for indigestion or gastritis or any other stomach misery.

Get some now, this minute, and forever rid yourself of stomach trouble and indigestion.

In Sudden Emergencies

like illness, it is often necessary quickly to raise the temperature of a room. For instance, in those hours between midnight and dawn, when the day temperature has been allowed to drop, if you are called upon to get up, the room is chilly and cold. It takes a long time to start up a furnace or fire and raise the temperature by ordinary means.

You can instantly heat a room to any desired temperature with a

PERFECTION
OIL HEATER
Absolutely smokeless and odorless

It quickly gives heat, and with one filling of the font burns steadily for nine hours, without smoke or smell. Has automatic-locking flame spreader which prevents the wick from being turned high enough to smoke, and is easy to remove and drop back, so the wick can be cleaned in an instant. It has a cool handle and a damper top.

An indicator always shows the amount of oil in the font. It has a filler-cap which does not need to be screwed down; it is put in like a cork in a bottle, and is attached to the font by a chain.

The burner body or gallery cannot become wedged, because of a new device in construction, and consequently it can always be easily unscrewed in an instant for reworking.

The Perfection Oil Heater is finished in Japan or nickel. It is strong, durable and well made, built for service, yet light and ornamental.
